20 Botanical Garden Wedding Venues That Are Full of Natural Beauty

February 9, 2021  5

Samantha Iacia

If you love flowers, trees, and plants, a botanical gardens wedding may be for you. Host the outdoor wedding of your dreams at these amazing venues.

Across the country, there are so many botanical gardens wedding venues that just so happen to make picture-perfect backdrops for your special day. From traditional rose gardens and neatly trimmed topiary displays, to desert gardens, tropical forests, and plant-filled greenhouses, the great thing about these botanical event spaces is that they're beautiful all on their own, which means you can let nature do the decorative work for you.

Whether you're getting married on the East Coast, West Coast, or somewhere in between, you won't want to miss these flower-filled venues.

JAPANESE FRIENDSHIP GARDEN SAN DIEGO

Japanese Friendship Garden San Diego

San Diego, California

From waterfalls, wisteria arbors, pavilions, and outdoor courtyards, to bamboo walls and koi ponds, this botanical gardens wedding venue has so many different settings to choose from. If you're eloping or having an intimate wedding, you can even get married on the picturesque bridge (pictured above) for a unique outdoor ceremony. Optional event additions include chairs, banquet tables, and linens, or you can bring your own.

THE NEW YORK BOTANICAL GARDEN

The New York Botanical Garden

Bronx, New York

As one of the most famous botanical gardens and "living museums" in the country, The New York Botanical Garden is also an iconic place to get married. Choose from two outdoor spaces: an elegant garden terrace overlooking lush trees and hydrangea bushes, or the secluded rustic stone mill, nestled just steps from the Bronx River. As an all-inclusive wedding venue, the botanical gardens also provide gourmet catering, bartending, and event rentals, such as chairs, banquet tables, and tents.
