

New England
Botanic Garden
AT TOWER HILL

Co-hosted by Ecological Landscape Alliance

2025 URBAN TREE SYMPOSIUM

Urban Oases: Trees as Lifelines in Our Cities

Explore the importance of urban forests and ways we can improve our green spaces.

RHODE ISLAND URBAN FORESTS TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Robert "Lou" Allard

Department of Conservation & Recreation
Rhode Island Department of Environmental Management

UNDERSTANDING OUR URBAN FORESTS

Richard W. Harper

Professor and Extension Urban Forester
University of Massachusetts Amherst

ADVOCATING FOR EQUITY & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT IN BOSTON'S URBAN FOREST

David Meshoulam

Co-founder and Executive Director

MarS McCormick

Associate Director
Speak for the Trees Boston

PLANTING TREES OF CHANGE: THE RETURN OF THE CHESTNUT TREE

Robert Graham

Land Steward
New England Botanic Garden at Tower Hill

EXPLORING URBAN TREE PLANTING: BUILDING RESILIENT AND EQUITABLE CITIES THROUGH RESEARCH AND COLLABORATION

John Rogan
Deborah Martin

Professors of Geography
Clark University

SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST: TREE HEALTH IN THE CONCRETE JUNGLE

Nicholas J. Brazee

Extension Plant Pathologist
University of Massachusetts Amherst

Friday, February 7, 2025

9:00 AM - 4:30 PM

New England Botanic Garden
at Tower Hill

$ NEBG / ELA members: $125
$ Non-Members: $150
$ Students: $60

Early Bird Registrations automatically receive a 10% discount on the above ticket price. This price is valid until January 5, 2025.

Urban Tree Symposium and New England Botanic Garden at Tower Hill

Register for the Urban Tree Symposium, dedicated to exploring the importance of urban forests and...

New England Botanic Garden at Tower Hill

Register now at: www.nebg.org

CEUs

CFE, MAA, MCLP, MCH, ISA, APLD
UPDATED ON WEBSITE AS APPROVED

