New England Botanic Garden
AT TOWER HILL

Group Visits & Guided Tours

New England Botanic Garden is one of the region's premier locations for your team outing or group visit. A serene backdrop of gardens, woodlands, meadows, and mountain views provide the perfect setting for an out-of-office day trip. Explore our extensive formal gardens and woodland trails on your own, or pair the visit with a guided informational tour.

Each season offers a different garden experience. Spring brings beautiful bulbs including daffodils, tulips, and more. Summer gardens feature dramatic, colorful displays of annuals and perennials. In autumn, views of fall foliage are unmatched in the region, and winter at the Garden offers an escape from the cold as your group explores our subtropical conservatories.

Accessibility

Many of New England Botanic Garden's outdoor gardens and all of its indoor facilities (conservatories, classrooms, café, and restrooms) are wheelchair and stroller accessible. Some of the garden paths and walkways are cement, brick, and bluestone. There are many benches along the paths to stop, sit, and admire the plants and gardens. Some gardens have small gravel on the path, which may be more challenging to maneuver.

Dining at New England Botanic Garden At Tower Hill

Groups can pre-order lunches from our onsite café, the Farmer and the Fork. All groups interested in utilizing this service must complete their order at least 10 days prior to their arrival. For more information, please ask your Event Specialist.

Members of your group may also bring their own bagged lunch to eat picnic style in the gardens. No outside catering or alcohol is permitted. All food and beverage served or brought onto the property must be nut-free. Products may be sourced from facilities that process nuts.

There are scattered tables throughout the gardens and in the Northeast Link (a small room on the east side of the Orangerie), and you may spread a blanket on any mown grassy area. Seating throughout the gardens is limited and available on a first come, first served basis. Garden staff are happy to provide a list of local restaurants should you decide to enjoy lunch elsewhere before or after you visit!

Inclement Weather & Cancellation/Rescheduling

Tours are held rain or shine. In the event of inclement weather, we will reschedule your tour, however, tour refunds are not available.

Group rate admission fees still apply during New England Botanic Garden extended hours. Tickets are non-refundable and only valid for the date and time listed above.

Groups may reschedule once, subject to availability for a $50 fee. NEBG requires at least 24 hours' notice for group visits and one weeks' notice for group tours, along with the requested alternate date. Seasonal admission rate increases will be added to the final invoice. No refunds or credits will be issued if the alternate date has a lower admission rate.
