To confirm your group visit, a signed agreement is required. Payment must be made one week in advance of your visit date with a credit card. Final guest count is due at the time of payment.

Dining

Guests are welcome to visit the Farmer and the Fork café for hot cocoa, apple cider, cider donuts, winter cocktails and savory, seasonal grilled cheeses. Open nightly until 9:30p.m. Please note that seating is limited during this event and we do not recommend bringing a picnic dinner. Outside alcohol is not permitted on property. All food and beverage served or brought onto the property must be nut-free. Products may be sourced from facilities that process nuts.

Accessibility

New England Botanic Garden's formal gardens are wheelchair and walker accessible. Some of the paths and walkways are cement, brick, and bluestone. There are many benches along the paths to stop, sit and admire the plants and flowers. There are some gardens that have small gravel on the path which may be more difficult to maneuver, depending on the type of walker or wheelchair.

Bus Drop Off & Parking

Groups of 40 guests or more must arrive by bus.

Buses may drop off guests near the entrance walkway to the gardens located at the top, right hand side of the entry drive at the "No Parking Drop Off Only" sign. Buses should then park in the parking lots in the designated bus parking area (follow parking lot signs) and can schedule a pickup time with the group leader back at the entry path.

Cancellation/Rescheduling

Night Lights takes place in all weather conditions, but if weather presents a risk to safety, New England Botanic Garden may decide to cancel an evening. If so, you will be notified about the cancellation by email by 2pm on the day of your visit.

If there are no other dates available to reschedule your group visit, groups will receive a full refund.

Groups may reschedule once, subject to availability for a $50 fee. NEBG requires at least 24 hours' notice for group visits and one weeks' notice for group tours, along with the requested alternate date. Seasonal admission rate increases will be added to the final invoice. No refunds or credits will be issued if the alternate date has a lower admission rate.
